

things are just fine the way they are now with the indiana no call law.why fix something thats not broke.since we were put on the no call list we don't get anymore solicting calls.please find something else to do with your time.----- -- virgil jost